While You're Visiting the Charlottesville Area

Thomas Jefferson called the countryside in the Albemarle County, Virginia "Little Eden" because of its unparalleled natural beauty. Abounding in history, and holding some of the finest examples of early American architecture, the Charlottesville area draws millions of visitors every year. There's no better time than spring to make plans to visit one of the following historic homes:

Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson, offers daily tours for $22/person:
www.monticello.com or 434.984.9822

Ashlawn-Highland, home of James Monroe, offers daily tours for $10/person:
www.ashlawnhighland.org or 434.293.8000

Montpelier, home of James Madison offers daily tours for $16/person:
www.montpelier.org or 540.672.2728, extension 140
